

Kenneth P. Taylor

September 9, 2016

Taylor, Kenneth P., 61, of Warwick, formerly of North Scituate, passed away September 9th, 2016. He was the beloved husband of Cindy (Langfield) Taylor for 39 years and loving father to Jennifer Vaudrain and her husband Chris. Born in Providence, RI, he was a son of Evelyn Taylor of North Kingstown and the late Ralph Taylor. Besides his wife, he is survived by his brother David Taylor and his wife Betty of NC, his late brother Paul Taylor, and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He was employed as a truck driver for A. Duie Pile, Johnston, for several years. Kenny the toolman Taylor was loved by all who knew him. He never let an opportunity to improve something pass him by. His contagious laugh, gentle mannerisms, and sense of humor were just a few reasons why people loved him. He always managed to bring a smile to your face as he held a tight grip to his Coors Light! Everybody loved Raymond, everybody loved Ken! A Celebration of Life will be held on October 9th from 12-3 p.m. at Chelos Restaurant, 2225 Post Road, Warwick, RI. All who would like to honor Kenny are invited. Bring your funny stories and your memories!
