

Liborio "Buddy" Mangione

October 6, 2020

On October 6th, 2020 Liborio "Buddy" Mangione peacefully passed away and joined his son in Heaven. He was the son of the late Phillipo and Filomena (Braica) Mangione, the husband of Dorothy (Mitchell) Mangione and the late Alice (Chevian) Mangione.

Buddy, though he may have struggled for the past few years, never lost his desire to live life to the fullest. Always ready for a joke or a debate. He was never short on words and always made his presence felt. He was full of life with a wonderful sense of humor. Buddy was a Master Plumber and second generation owner of Statewide Plumbing & Heating Co. A long time member of the Providence YMCA, he competed in both, handball as well as amateur boxing. In his later years Buddy also enjoyed golf to fill his time and competitive spirit.

He was father to Philip J. Mangione and wife Donna, Joseph A. Mangione and wife Patricia, James Watson and the late Vincent L. Mangione. His five grandchildren, Michael, Cerissa, Jaclyn, Amber and Melanie and 4 great grandchildren, Avianna, Gabriella, Aya and Mason brought him both joy and pride.

Buddy was the brother to Francis Musco, Philip Mangione and the late Marie Rossi. "Uncle Buddy" was always a favorite to his many nieces and nephews usually in the center, stirring the pot. His quick wit, sharp tongue and never ending desire to help out wherever needed will be missed by all that knew him.

Liborio "Buddy" Mangione was laid to rest surrounded by his loving family and celebrated by a private service on Monday October 19th, 2020 at Saint Ann Cemetery, Cranston. The family thanks you for all the support and encouragement that was shown during these trying times.
