

Lisa J. Zinno

August 1, 2025

With profound sadness, we mourn the passing of Lisa (Minicucci) Zinno. Beloved daughter of the late David S. Minicucci and the late Maria (Ricciardi) Minicucci.

She leaves behind sisters; Jane (Frank) Gaudiana, Kathryn Stanford, and Lora Minicucci. Nephews; Frank (Robin) Gaudiana, Anthony Gaudiana (Linda Diamante) and David Gaudiana. Nieces; Bethany (Kagan) Littlefield and Alisa (Ryan) Johnston. Great-nieces, Great-Nephews, a Great-Great-Niece, Godchildren, close family and friends.

Her 20+ year career in watch repair and retail was primarily spent at the Providence Watch Hospital.

Known for her kindness and generosity, she enjoyed spending time with her friends and family, dining out and at the beach, as well as occasional travels visiting friends in Martha's Vineyard and Germany. As an avid reader, she was a frequent patron of the library.

Visitation will be held Tuesday, August 12th from 9-10:30 AM in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 11:00 AM in St. Joseph Church, Scituate, RI. Graveside Burial will follow in St. Ann Cemetery, Cranston, RI.

In lieu of flowers, donations to "ALS United RI".

“ We, at the East Smithfield Library, want Lisa's family and friends to know how sad we are for your loss and that we will miss her here too. She was always a brightspot (her Dad too!) and we love how much she loved books and supported her local library and made us all feel cared for. She loved talking lovingly about her family. And, even when things clearly were becoming difficult for her, she continued to read and bring joy and care wherever she went. We will miss you Lisa! Bethany and the staff at ESPI.

“ *Life like a mist, appears for just a day,
then disappears tomorrow.*

*all that we are can quickly fade away,
replaced with tears and sorrow.*

*if a man should die, can he live again?
hear the promise God has made:*

*He will call; the dead will answer.
they will live at His command.*

*for He will have a longing
for the work of His own hand.*

*so have faith, and do not wonder,
for our God can make us stand.*

*and we will live forever,
as the work of His own hand.*

*friends of our God, though they may pass away,
will never be forsaken.*

*all those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
from death He will awaken.*

*then we'll come to see all that life can be:
paradise eternally.*

*He will call; the dead will answer.
they will live at His command.*

for the work of His own hand.*

*so have faith, and do not wonder,
for our God can make us stand.*

*and we will live forever,
as the work of His own hand.*

...Your Loving Family

“ Jane, Kathryn, and Lora,

I was so saddened to hear of Lisa's passing. My mother and father (Jack and Florence Prior) were good friends of your parents.

I will always remember her cheery disposition! My condolences to your family.

“ Hello,
My name is Marcos Chavez, husband of Lisa's longtime friend Joan Chavez. I only met Lisa a few times but she was always fun to be around and I have fond memories of Lisa having good times with her close friends.

Sadly Joan passed away in February but I recently found the last email thread between them that expresses their friendship.

My dear Joan, wishing you a very merry Christmas, and a happy healthy new year. How are you feeling? I hope you're recovering quickly from your surgery you and Marcos OK I hope all is well on the island. Talk to you soon love and peace, Lisa OXO.

Merry Christmas to you my dear friend.

I'm doing okay.

Think of you often and I'm looking forward to seeing you this spring.

Miss you and hope you're doing better too.

Love and hugs 🎄🎁❄️

Joan

My deepest condolences to all the family and friends.

“ When we were kids, maybe 12 or 13, we would sing “When I'm 64” by the Beatles. We would ask and wonder if we would still be friends at that age. 64 came and went and occasionally we would reminisce about that song. Time was cut too short for Lisa, but our friendship is eternal.
