

Lora B. Martino

April 12, 2020

Lora B. Martino, 67, of Woonsocket and formerly of Coventry, RI, passed away on April 12, at the Landmark Medical Center in Woonsocket. She was the daughter of the late Anthony and Hilda (Ise) Barbonzo.

Lora served a brief time in the United States Army before being honorably discharged for medical complications restricting her continued service.

She will be cherished and greatly missed by her niece and caretaker, Sharon Lavigne and her siblings, Marie Anne Perogino and Elaine Gemma. She also leaves behind her faithful and loving partner, William Rankin.

A Memorial Service in her honor will be held at a later date.

“ Mary Ann, Elaine and Family,

Please accept my sincerest condolences. I'm sure you have wonderful memories that you will always treasure. Lora is in a better place - in God's care now and what better care could we ever ask for her?

*With Love,
Cousin Karen*
