“ Dear Wanda:
I will always remember your Mom as being the most gracious person I ever met at the Providence Police Department. She was truly a Lady. Always perfectly dressed, her hair just so, usually wearing pearls. Most striking was her infinite patience with young cops and the foolishness we displayed. The world is a lesser place without Mrs. Doyle.

Auntie Lorraine may you be dancing with the angels like you danced at your 90th birthday. I will miss you forever and a day. But you are with Uncle Al and my mom and dad all of your departed family. Still hard to know I will not speak and see you again. You were the best of us. You will be remembered forever. I love you.
