“ I had the pleasure of caring for Louise during her stay at the Atrium. Getting to know her is a time that will remain close in my heart forever. She was the sweetest, most special kind soul I have ever met. I miss her every day. My heart goes out to my dear friend Carl and the whole family. We could all be so lucky to know a love like Louise and Carl's.

“ Mrs. Rimmler was my 4th grade teacher at North Scituate Elementary School in the late 50's, and she was my favorite teacher! I loved her, and it's because of her that I became an elementary school teacher - she was my inspiration. She was an amazing lady. God Bless.

Mrs. Rimmler was my 4th grade teacher at North Schituate Elementary and she was our neighbor too. She was a great teacher and students loved her.

“ I have so many fond memories of the year that Mrs. Rimmler was my fifth grade teacher. One that stood out to me was on our first day of school. She explained that she did not have any children of her own, but we were hers for the school year. She explained that at the end of the year we would leave her nest and fly away. Well, I did fly away but never forgot that comfortable nest with the caring “mother bird” she was! Surely she is enjoying her rewards in Heaven now.

“ I remember Mrs. Rimmler from 3rd grade elementary, she used to watch the kids play in the playground from her classroom and used small stones to rap on the window to get the attention of kids misbehaving.

I will always hold fond memories of my fourth grade teacher. I can still picture her throwing coats through the window of the building to people below on the January day the school burned.

If manners were not taught at home, they sure were in my 5th grade class. I believe, I learned more in Miss Louise class than any other in elementary school. RIP, you deserve the best of every thing that heaven has to offer.
