I met Marge in Junior High School and we became good friends. Marge was an intellectual and achieved many goals in her lifetime.

Her many hours of studying while in the nursing program paid off and Marge was awarded with an R.N. degree. We continued to keep in contact even though she had met many new loyal nursing friends. Since Marge was a thoughtful and kind person, she invited me to join her on a skiing trip to N.H. along with her special nursing friends. Whether it was a luncheon or dinner engagement,

Marge always mentioned her grand-children and great-grand children NANA. I enjoyed listening to her wonderful stories about her grand & great-grand children growing up, their schooling, and learning new skills. Marge gave them all loving and individual attention by treating them to trips around Rhode Island.

I will miss Marge and was so sorry to learn she passed on my last visit to Riverview March 5, 2022.

I Met Marge when she was living at Trafalgar East in East Greenwich through Claudia.

I remember Marge telling me her adventure in China and the Great Wall which she walked.

You can see the movie I made for Marge on Youtube: China 1997.
