“ I always admired Marge’s optimism and how she could make anyone laugh without even trying. Being with her felt easy and joyful. We’ll forever treasure those sunset parties on her back deck —good laughs, good moments, and memories we’ll always hold close. Marge will be truly missed.

Mom and Marge were friends for years. When on the phone over of them would start singing a song and then the other would join in. How many times I walked into the living room to hear my mother singing into the telephone. I knew she was on a call with Marge. A very special lady a very brave and strong lady with a sense of humor that was beyond measure. Rest in peace, Marge. My thoughts are with the family
