“ It's not your birthday, or Mother's Day, or any other holiday. It's just an ordinary day in our lives that we miss you. Your kindness, your smile, and your laughter are always with us. We were blessed to have you and Dad for our parents. Love you much! Your loving daughter, Cindy

“ As Thanksgiving approaches this week, with Christmas soon to follow, I am thankful for the many Thanksgiving dinners that we had together. There are no words to describe the bond that a mother and daughter have, nor the happiness that she brought to our family. We were truly blessed to have such a wonderful mother and grand-mother. This will be the first Thanksgiving without you, Mom. We will miss your smile, and your company in the kitchen. I will have a glass of wine for you, because I know you'll be having one in Heaven with Dad! I love you!

“ Always a sweet dedicated lady to family and Friends of the Shelter, Mary forever had a smile on her face. Our meetings at her home always included some delicious pastry that she would provide for us. When it became difficult for her to work in the garden at the shelter, Mary would drive up laden with food for the workers. She never stopped. My condolences to her family. I will miss her and her delightful ways.

“ We'll miss our Grandmother. I'm incredibly grateful she was able to meet her granddaughter and I'll cherish the memory of the two of them 'racing their new wheels' in the driveway. Thank you to all the friends and family that have supported our family over the course of her lifetime. She will truly be missed.

Love,

Emily, Vel, & Olivia
