“ I can't believe this is true ! A good friend a high school friend of ours reached out to me .. he thought of you and decided to go on face book . He reached out to me , to see if I knew . I didn't . You were my good friend in high school and I will never forget the laughs we had , sleep overs , when you join my family and I camping . You had a big spirit and a lot of love and originality ! You were unapologetic you ! Life drifted us apart ! Yet I hope you know you are thought of and I'm so happy that I got to know you and I am sad you passed so young ! I'm sorry for everyone's loss and pain ! He was a bright ball of fun in my life I'm happy to got a chance to know him ! RIP Matthew (my nickname I would call him) ..

“ I'm sorry to hear you're passing the last time we spoke it wasn't on good terms you asked to stay with me during a snowstorm I'll let you stay you stole from me two pictures of my credit cards tried to do online purchases and took all the miscellaneous things left and said you would be back in a little bit you left to go hang out with Jamie in Pawtucket. Never did understand it we got along so well you did me solid just to screw me over after I had given you so much praise for what I thought was a decent individual. I know at heart you were you were struggling from many things. way too young to pass, I was wondering what happened to you. A Mutual friend had told me so many people in the last couple of years under the age of 40 it breaks my heart. Till we meet again someday I forgive you rest in peace Matt I know you didn't mean to do it. You tried and tried and tried to apologize I just couldn't move past it at the time I felt violated.. redundant now.. my prayers are with your family rest in peace my friend..

let's not post on his obituary the negative things he has done in his life.. everyone makes mistakes and as you said yourself . he was struggling. if you were a true friend of his you would have seen his struggles instead of bashing him on his obituary. grow the heck up

Matt had a lot of issues. I don't want to mention them here, but we all should know what happened and what probably or could have caused his death. He would only contact me when he needed money and told so many lies to get money, but I always knew what the deal was and I would never give him money as it was an enabling fact. So sorry he passed though. I only wish he could have straightened his life out and not had to leave his family behind.

“ Matty was such a sweet man. I met him in the fall of 2014 and we had a short fling. I can remember one day where we just walked around Westerly/Pawketuck and just talked, for hours. Then we went back to my grandmother's house on Ball St. where I was staying at the time, and it was me, my oldest brother, his girlfriend, and Matty. I was telling jokes, and I got him to the point where he was laughing really hard. His laugh and smile were infectious. I will never forget that night, or him as long as I live Somebody who should've still been with us, but I'm consoled only by that fact that one day we will meet again.

“ We had so many good times! Friends and lovers back to friends.. you were the closest to me that I ever let anyone get at that point! I miss you beautiful smile and that infectious laugh. No matter what you and me always made a fun good team together with friends or without. Just thinking about you know and the world they missed out on you. I'll see you in heaven one day

Jesse... You stole from my grandmothers house the night you and Matt drugged me with Xanax so that you could run off together and have sex. Which, might I add, was the night before Matt and I were supposed to move in together. Some team! You were passion for each other and he would have been better off not knowing awful people like you. Period!

JE

Poison not passion.*

Jey - February 22 at 11:50 PM

What!? Are you talking about? You have problems. Stole from your grandmother's house. I don't even know who this is and Matt was never going to move in with anybody when he was living with me. So get your facts straight obviously. If this is the J that I remember the cops going to the house and I was driving a red Jeep Wrangler then you were the one having a domestic and nobody poisoned anybody with Xanax you lying POS. Nobody can tell you take a pill. Store drug you come on and you put this on his memorial?

Jesse Allen - May 21 at 11:03 AM

Jey you were poison for him don't tell me I was poison. I was not there the night of his death to lie about some accusations. That big is really concerning. You have problems. Yes we did love sex we had sex a lot. You are the person that had a no contact order with him. You went to his father's house. I remember you now you have no idea who I am so I don't lie, also you were intoxicated that night nobody drugged you. You were just a drunk face up. Stop putting things like this on this page too. You're really insulting not just to me, but to him who can't even defend himself because I know of a fact would never do something like that.
