“ Peter, I'm so very sorry! I never had the pleasure of meeting Michelle but I know she must have been a beautiful person. No amount of hugs and prayers will make it better but I'm sending them anyway. You're always in my heart Peter and I'm so very sorry 🙏💜

“ PJ, Meaghan and Peter. There will never be enough words to explain how sorry I am for your loss. I still haven't come to terms that she's not going to come knocking on moms door at random times while she's down here to bring Peter to work. She was a pain and made some not so good choices, but she tried so hard to have a good relationship with me. No matter what she was my moms third sister and I'll always love her like an aunt. I hope you all heal and I don't doubt that she'll be making herself known in your lives. I love you guys❤️

“ I've written and deleted this about 10 times it really is that hard!! I cannot come to grips with your loss. I could share so many stories starting with Michelle's terrible/ fast driving to being Maid Of Honor for her and Peter which she always said besides having her children that was the best day of her life she'd always follow that with don't tell him though don't want it going to his head lol.. Losing her Mother was the most devastating loss so I know she is finally at Peace reuniting with her for that reason I am at Peace. Michelle was like my sister we loved each other, fought and always made up Like Sisters!! I will forever Miss U❤️🙏

“ Peter, Meghan & Peter Jr
I'm so very sorry..it's a shock that Michelle is an Angel now.. We worked together for many years, I was working with her when she fell head over heels for Peter! We worked together for many years after too..I have so many wonderful memories of Michelle, her laugh was contagious! I will miss her so very much..
