“ Myra, one of the strongest women I knew. Although she wasn't well she would always say getting a little better everyday. I will truly miss her, our morning chat's, and her love for everything I would cook and bake for her, she would say what did you bring me today sweetie. Myra may you rest in peace.

“ Aunt Myra was ONE of a kind 😊 always a laugh in the air around her. My Dad was married to her sister Andrea - so I was a bonus niece into the family. As I recall when we would go see Grammy... she was typically there...she gave the best hugs and filled the room with her presence. The years have passed 40 or more...and we had chatted through Facebook...its a harsh reality of time when you 'do the math' of when you spoke/saw them last. Aunt Myra - you are a GEM, and you enriched little Kathie's life - you are loved and will always be remembered. Kiss Kiss 😊 thanks for loving me 💜

“ Growing up, I would have a sleepover with cousin Andrea and was intrigued with Myra's shorthand notes which caused me to follow her to Katharine Gibbs so she was definitely an influence in my life. RIP from your cousin Marilyn.
