

Nicholas M. Winfield

September 2, 2018

Nicholas M. Winfield, 26, of Scituate, passed away on September 2, 2018. He was the son of John F. Winfield, Jr. and Linda A. (Lanni) Winfield. He also leaves his brother, Jonathan Winfield. In addition, he leaves his grandmother Barbara A. (Hanley) Froempter, his uncle, James Lanni and his wife Shelley, of Johnston and several cousins.

Nicholas was a graduate of Scituate High School. He also graduated with honors from the Community College of Rhode Island where he majored in Business. He was enrolled in, and scheduled to attend, the Pittsburgh Institute of Mortuary Science in October, 2018. He was employed as an intern as well as a certified crematory manager with the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home and Crematory.

Prior to his college education he had been a Certified Nursing Assistant and been employed as a CNA specializing in Alzheimers/Dementia patients. He took great pride in providing care to these people in need.

Nicholas had a lifelong love of animals, especially his dogs, Thor and Hailey. He also enjoyed rollercoasters and travelled throughout New England and the east coast as well as to Ohio to ride the best coasters that he could find. He was a loving individual who would be the first to help those in need. Anybody who knew Nicholas knew that he was quick witted with a dry sense of humor.

What many people did not know was that he was also sensitive and soft-hearted.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, September 10, 2018, at

St. Joseph Church, Danielson Pike, Scituate. Entombment will follow at Swan Point Cemetery, Providence. Calling Hours Sunday, September 9, 2018, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers donations in his memory may be made to the Friends of the Scituate Animal Shelter, P.O. Box 14, Clayville, RI 02815, fsasri.org

Lovely video, glad I had a chance to view it. Nick was a fine young man, his candle burned out way too soon. Rest in Peace, Nick. Glad we had a chance to know you, if only for a short time. We will never forget you.

“ Linda, John and Johnathan
The love of a child is a special gift given to each of us as we are born into this life. For those (of us) who are adopted, the gift of love is tenfold. You gave life, in more ways than one, to Nicholas and that love will never fade away. Love never dies it transforms. Your lives will never be the same but then, it was forever changed when you gave him a life filled with love and joy. Allow that joy to give you comfort.

Much love, Claire

“ Mr. and Mrs. Winfield and Jonathan, words can't even begin to explain my heartfelt sympathies to you all. I was saddened to hear the passing of Nick. Mr. and Mrs. Winfield, I had the pleasure of growing up with your sons in the Scituate School system. I was two grades above them, but I won't forget the numerous times we sat together in the lunch room. We had many a conversation on dealing with bullies, following your passion, and animals of course. Some days, I even felt like they came to me for advice because I was their role model. Jonathan, I hope you continue to write poems as the poem you wrote about your brother was beautifully composed with your heart. Send my peace and love to you all during this difficult time. RIP Nick, fly high!

“ *The loss of a loved one leaves a hole
Right inside my very soul
Here I'm left with a injured heart
Cause my life's missing a part
A part that meant so much to me
He was so much more than family
It's impossible to find relief
And so I'm here left in grief
I don't know what was on his mind
And why he left so much behind
The friends and family and more than one pet
There's no replacing the care they would get
He loved them more than words can explain
And now each one is left with pain
The pain of loss and disbelief
His life well it appeared too brief
I suppose he was meant to leave earth
Words can't describe what he was worth
I just don't know what to say
I can't talk to him and so I pray
I pray to God for my brother to know
He'll be in my heart no matter where I go
It's hard to live without my brother
But I have to at least for my father and mother
Even if I don't care about living
My soul is not ready for the giving
I won't know why God had to chose
My brother to be the one I'd lose
But I will just have to stay strong
Because on earth I still belong
But when it comes time to say goodbye
I'll soar with you up in the sky
Miss you Nick
Love your brother*

“ Dear John, Linda, and Jonathan,

I know what loving parents you have been and are for your sons, and how you have cared for both your boys over the years, with great love and with great determination; also how Nicholas and Jonathan have cared for each other throughout their lives. My heart goes out to your family at this very sad time.

“ Yes Nick was sensitive, loving and caring. He also had a great sense of humor. But Nick was also endowed with other special attributes. He believed that all people deserved an equal playing field. He spoke with feeling about justice and equality. He loved and appreciated his parents and his brother, Jonathan. I told Nick about my love for the book, “The Prophet” by Khalil Gibran and shared a few of my favorite quotes. The one that comes to mind for Nick is, “And when you part from your friend grieve not, for that which you loved dearest in him may become clearer in his absence as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.” Thank you Nick for all the times you made me smile out loud. I will miss you.

“ I had the privilege of being part of the WINFIELD & SONS family when the boys were young. I witnessed the care and love John & Linda had for their sons. I recall fondly a young Nicholas and now know that he had become a fine young man with promise of great success with his parents guidance. I sit from afar in disbelief knowing that he has passed. John, Linda, Jonathan and the Winfield staff please know that I am thinking of you at this most painful time.
