

Norma M. Loux

November 5, 2019

Norma M. Loux, 86 of Greenville, RI passed away peacefully on November 5, 2019 while visiting family in Southern California. Born in Providence, RI September 14, 1933, she was the beloved daughter of the late George E. Loux Sr. and Margaret H. (Pierce) Loux. She is survived by her sister Patricia A. Pryor of Greenville, RI and brothers Donald F. Loux of Cranston, RI, Robert A. Loux of Garden Grove, CA and Dennis James Loux of Johnston, RI. She was the sister of the late Margaret Roberta Browning, George E. Loux Jr., Everett D. Loux, Dolores M. Simoneau, William F. Loux and Mary Evelyn Sisker. She leaves several dozen nieces and nephews across three generations.

Norma offered much of her time in service to others. Upon graduating from Roger Williams School of Nursing as a LPN, she took positions at Eleanor Slater Hospital, Cranston, RI, St. Joseph's Hospital, Providence, RI, Quonset Point Naval Hospital, No Kingstown, RI and the Providence VA Medical Center from which she retired after 25 years. Norma was a United States Army Veteran enlisting in 1957.

Norma loved life. Auntie Norma was truly the "heart and soul" of the Loux family and a loyal friend to many. She played organized women's softball and remained a lifelong golfer ranked among the top RI seniors. She was a lifelong and passionate "World Class" Boston Red Sox Fan. Norma was a music connoisseur, loved to play guitar and electric keyboards, and was known as an accomplished photographer. Relatives and friends are invited to attend a mass of Christian Burial on Monday November 18th at 10:00 a.m. at St. Joseph's Church, Danielson Pike, Scituate. Burial with military honors will be in Highland Memorial Park Cemetery, Johnston. Calling hours are respectfully omitted. In lieu of flowers donations in her memory may be made to the American Cancer Society, 931 Jefferson Blvd. #3004, Warwick, RI 02886. Arrangements by Winfield & Sons Funeral Home.
