

Norma Harriet Naylor

October 31, 2021

Norma Harriet Naylor, 93, passed away peacefully on October 31, 2021.

Born in the city of Boston, Massachusetts on October 16, 1928, she was the daughter of the late Forest and Mabel (Shotter) Cary, wife of the late Graham Mapleson Naylor, devoted mother of Brian Mapleson Naylor and his partner Joanne Farrell, Keith Cary Naylor and his wife Sandra, Diane Lee Naylor and her partner Keith Kohanski, Dean Walter Naylor and his wife Irene, Wayne Forest Naylor, and Nathan Graham Naylor; cherished grandmother of Kyle Naylor and his wife Cheryl, Seth Cary Naylor, Jennifer Watman, Matthew Battey and his wife Kristen, Kenton Battey, Ian Willard, Allison Naylor, Rachel Naylor, Kaitlin Naylor and her fiancée David Cavicchi, and Ethan Naylor; great grandmother of Alec, Jamison, Reid, and Addison Naylor, Cheyanne Watman, and Charlotte Battey.

Norma lived a full and active life. She worked as a licensed hairdresser, collaborated with her sister-in-law as a florist for many years at Barbara's House of Flowers in Johnston, RI, and also employed in a secretarial capacity for Allendale Insurance and later FM Global until her retirement.

Norma also volunteered and donated her time cutting hair for the residents at the state institute of RI; involved in her children's school days as president of the PTA; active member of Shepherd of the Valley Methodist Church in Scituate, RI, receiving a special mission recognition for her gift of ministries with women, children, and youth; hospitality chairman on the board of directors for the State Ballet of RI, member of the Scituate Garden Club; member of the Scituate Senior Center; delivered food to homebound with Meals on Wheels; caregiver for the elderly in Scituate; and received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University in recognition of her dedication to working with Alpert Medical School students in the Doctoring course.

Norma made holidays special for her family and friends. She captured the essence of Christmas by making it festive and warm with beautiful decorations, delicious food, and with family and friends all welcomed around the table. She loved a great party and created many of them during her lifetime.

Norma loved laughter, and enjoyed music, dancing and travelling; having had the opportunities to make trips domestically out west and aboard to London and Yorkshire, England and Paris, France.

“ My condolences to the entire family with the passing of Norma. I had the pleasure of getting to know Norma when I joined the Gentian Garden Club in Scituate. She was a very artistic person who had a talent with working with flowers. Her designs were very creative. She always had a smile on her face. She will be missed by many. In Sympathy, Nancy Mende
