

Patricia M. Perry

December 9, 2025

Patricia "Patti" M. Perry (Carson), 72 of Scituate RI passed Tuesday, December 9th 2025 in her home with her dog "Honey" and daughter by her side. She was an educator, avid reader and cherished friend to many.

Born on December 29, 1952 in Rhode Island. She was daughter to the late Charles "Chic" Carson and the late Gloria Carson (Goodreau). She spend some of her childhood in Michigan and later moved back to Riverside RI. She was wife to her late husband Lloyd Perry of Scituate. They were married for 32yrs and they both loved New Orleans. She has a late older sister Kathleen Warzycha of Seekonk, a late younger brother Charles (Chickie) Carson Jr. of Riverside and a surviving younger brother Johnnie Carson and wife of Riverside.

Patti was one of the original instructors at American Safety Programs and Training Inc. and continued there after retirement. She was admired for her innovative teaching methods and unwavering commitment to her students. She previously worked at both Kent County YMCA and YMCA Camp Fuller for many years. Then at RI Community Food Bank where she retired. Patti truly lived by the saying "It takes a village" and a village she did help with all her community based jobs. She volunteered at programs like MADD and at her local library. She became a zoo docent at Rodger Williams Zoo and was also a Girl Scout leader.

She found joy in crafting, gardening, reading, birdwatching, blues music and bragging about her grandchildren. Her yard was once filled with lush gardens, stone walls and pathways and a troll named Limoge.

Patti is survived by her daughter Sarah (Perry) Grant and her husband Randy Grant and their two children Willow Grant and Wyatt Grant and his two children (her great grandchildren) Phoenix Grant and Lincoln Grant all of Scituate.

At Patti's request there will be a private cremation with no services.

“ Patti is my cousin. So sorry I have not seen her in many years. Great memories remain of our childhood together in Riverside, when we visited our Nana, ate at Chic’s restaurant, got fish and chips at the old shack that still exists, and chili dogs for $.25 at that shopping strip across the street. Rest in peace Patti. ”

“ I was so sorry to hear about Patti. I worked with her for years at the Food Bank and have so many memories of shared laughter, stories about family and friends and her numerous animals. In fact, I got my dog Mia from Patti who very graciously let me adopt the puppy that another co-worker had brought in for her.

I also have an incredible memory of going with Patti and Lloyd to see Cindi Lauper. She came out into the audience and stood the arm rest of my and Patti's chair!

Patti was so full of life and fun and she loved her people very deeply. My thoughts are with all of you.

“ I met Patti only a few times at my sister Honey's house in Warwick. Patti was Honey's cousin. Honey and Patti sat for a few hours on their visits together and talked about their memories growing up. They were lively conversations and the nicknames used "back in the day" that carried through to the adults of today, who had passed on, and who was still here. Honey and I were two of our father's 11 children. To clarify, Frankie and Patsy and Honey were from the Monahan/Goodreau 1st marriage. The rest of us (8) were from our father and his 2d wife our mother. It was enjoyable to hear the memories that both Honey and Patti shared--laughter and the awareness of buried memories coming to light from one or the other. The "do you remember", the "hm, no, not really", the bit of details, and then "OH! yes, you are right!" I was so glad that Honey and Patti got to spend those few visits together as Honey passed away a short time later.

She always talked very highly of her cousin Honey. I'm happy they were able to share those memories as well

I see Honey's two children each year when I return to the States from Nova Scotia. I told them last year I wanted to invite Patti next year, so sorry it will not happen now. She is my cousin, her mom Gloria was my aunt, my mom was Jeanette Goodreau, who I am sure knew your Dad. I did see her brother John last year, stopped by his house My regards to her family and friends.
