

Patrick Michael Fay

January 31, 2023

Patrick Michael Fay, 35, of Cranston, RI, passed unexpectedly on January 31, 2023. He was the beloved only son of Jeanne and Walter Fay of Warwick, RI and the adored younger brother of Catherine M. Fay, of Warwick. He was also the nephew of James Chretien and Brian Bell of North Tustin, CA, Paul Chretien, (recently deceased) and his wife Sharon Chretien, of Fall River, MA. In addition, he was the grandson of Theresa and Walter Fay (deceased) of Cranston and Lillian and Eugene Chretien of Fall River, MA (also deceased). Patrick was a bright, active, and inquisitive child with a quirky sense of humor. After saying something he found funny, he often said “Sometimes I crack myself up.” He loved T-ball and later Little League baseball. He would frequently be dressed in his uniform by 6:00 a.m., pacing restlessly back and forth and asking if it was “time to go.” He also enjoyed swimming and karate. From an early age, Patrick showed a great passion and aptitude for music. His father, Walter, who is a musician himself, taught Patrick to play guitar, but after a couple of years, Walter told Pat that he had nothing more to teach him. The student now outshone the teacher!

Patrick attended St. Bartholomew School in Providence, and although he was accepted at Classical High School, he opted to go to Bishop Hendricken in Warwick, RI. While at Hendricken, Patrick and a group of talented fellow students formed a band. They called themselves “Boiler Room” because that’s where they were allowed to practice. They played at school concerts and other events.

After High School, Patrick attended Western New England College in Springfield, MA for a year before deciding that college was not right for him. He later studied audio engineering in New York City.

Patrick worked in the food services industry for most of his adult life, and was employed by Maria's Pizza in Cranston at the time of his death. He was much loved and will be sadly missed.

Calling hours will be held Wednesday February 8th from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. with a Memorial Service to immediately follow at 6:00 p.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate.

“ A day doesn't go by where I don't hear his voice singing songs. I was blessed to know Patrick. I knew him only shy of a year but it felt like I knew him a lifetime. I am lucky that I got to spend the time I did with him. It saddens me to hear/see the news of him passing. Mr. And Mrs. Fay, and Catherine, if you need anything at all please reach out. I'm deepest condolences.

“ He knew how to help me when I was in gloom
He had the ability to brighten a room
He knew all the words that need be spoken
When it appeared that someone felt broken
I knew when in doubt to him I could speak
He would help me on days that I appeared weak
I knew him as a coworker I knew him as friend
Sadly all good things in life do come to an end
Although his soul has left and risen up high
Although I was not able to tell him goodbye
His compassionate side will always remain
As a fond memory in my heart and brain
And even though his soul may now be at rest
I will remember for support he did his best
So to you Patrick Fay I must now say goodbye
But I will remember you as a friend until the day I die.

You may be gone Patrick Fay, but you are not forgotten,

“ My heart is broken upon hearing this devastating news. I'm sitting here crying and sending all my love to the Fay family. Pat is, and will always be, one of my favorite humans that I have had the privilege to call my friend. Smart, deeply insightful and introspective, non-judgmental, hardworking, talented and an all around good guy. One of my favorite people to have deep conversations with. These are just a few of the many positive ways in which I can describe him. And how I will remember him.

I'm sharing some pictures I took of Pat when I met up with him in New York City. We had a fun day galavanting around the city. As you can see, he was in supermodel mode and loving the camera!

I will miss him deeply. My thoughts and prayers are with Pat, his family and everyone who loved him.

With much love and a broken heart,

“ Awww Patrick, my heart hurts so much hearing this. Oh how you and Jonathan made me genuinely laugh. I will always remember the singing and conspiracy videos that you created, the way you challenged my thought process, your kind heart and your blue sky thinking. The beach chair that you bought me as a moving gift to....Johnston, lol now sits poolside with me in FL where it will remain. I'll miss our chats, kiddo.

Mr and Mrs Fay & Catherine, I wish you some kind of peace in your heart at this difficult time.

“ I worked with Pat at Brewed Awakening. Always an energetic energy with memorable eyes. He always said his favorite “brewing coffee smell” was blueberry. I will always remember him for that, so much more and his jam sessions in the car singing his heart out. Cherished memories now. God Bless
