“ I first met Paul in 1974 in the model shop at Hasbro. My first project with Paul was the Weebles treasure island. I was just starting in the industry and Paul was like a mentor to me. Paul was not just a coworker, but a close friend. I will miss him dearly.

“ My Dear childhood friend Paul Kotowski has passed and i will miss his dry humor and our long conversations. I hope he is completely at rest in a time from that will allow me to see him once again once I depart.

Love is a strange word for paul it was stated as such but just the way he treated me was a verification that he love me as his friend.

It was 9n a way Paul that set me on a path to learn about myself when I was a young man and I will say unequivocally that he was an important factor in saving my life by giving me good advise. Thank you Paul and I know the end is near and I hope to see you on the other side after this rehearsal.

Loving regards to all left behind.

“ Paul (and Charlotte) was so kind to me and my wife Pat - newlyweds just starting out and far from home. We sailed on his beloved Frisco Flyer (which I later purchased from him) many many times on Narraganset Bay, and we both loved the quiet conversations.
