

Peter Richard St. Angelo

October 15, 2024

Peter (Pete) Richard St. Angelo, 55, passed away unexpectedly October 15th, at home. Born and raised in Scituate, Rhode Island, he was the son of the late Robert R. and Elizabeth St. Angelo. He is survived by his sister Amy St. Angelo, brother, Robert J. St. Angelo and wife Jean, nephews Michael and John, aunts Deborah Boylan, Nancy Thomas and husband David, and Rebecca Boylan wife of his late uncle, John Boylan. He also leaves behind a daughter, Kristy DiSano.

Pete loved the outdoors, fishing, swimming, and free diving at Black Point in Narragansett. He enjoyed listening to music and playing his keyboard. Peter also enjoyed drawing and photography and was quite talented. He loved animals and the many family pets he was surrounded by.

Peter was a hard worker, genuinely cared about others and his co-workers would often refer to him as "Uncle Pete." He was committed and proud of the work he did, no matter what it was. He would show up to work an hour early, just to make sure he would not be late. Pete was very kindhearted, he would have given you the shirt off his back, even if it were the last shirt he had. Peter loved his family and friends and was loved by anyone who got to know him.

Funeral services are respectfully omitted.

“ *Fare Thee Well Dear Peter.
May you thrive and prosper on your new journey. Now you have a chance to peruse your past life and experiences.
May you gain clarity, confidence, and poise and know that you are always Divinely supported, protected, and loved.
Amen, Aho.*

“ I spoke to Pete about a year ago. He was struggling and so he allowed me to pray with him. His Faith in God was sincere. I'm so very to hear of his passing. May you rest in the Peace of God, Pete.
