

Phillip Joseph Caprio

January 13, 2026

Phillip Joseph Caprio, 66, passed away peacefully on January 13, 2026 surrounded by his beloved family. Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Anthony and Lorraine (Fargnoli) Caprio. He was the devoted husband of Robin (Shaw) Caprio.

Phillip worked in service maintenance for Amica Insurance Company until his unforeseen retirement at the age of 47. He loved being outdoors and especially enjoyed fishing. A devoted football fan, he cherished Sundays watching his beloved San Francisco 49ers, for whom he even had a dedication tattoo.

Phillip was known for always telling jokes and for greeting each day and ending each night, with a smile, often saying he “Woke up to another day.” His greatest joy came from spending time with his daughters and grandchildren. He was always ready to lend a helping hand using his special tools (“if pappy can’t fix it, no one can!).

He will be deeply missed for his corny jokes, his positive spirit, and his uplifting outlook on life.

He is survived by his children, Erica (Caprio) Muller and her husband Greg, Desiree Caprio and Nicole Caprio; his cherished grandchildren, Ariana, Noah, Jason, Morgan, and Olivia; and his sisters, Theresa Francis and Joanne Perry. He also leaves behind many nieces, nephews and extended family along with his dogs Keesha and Kali, both girls, whom he adored so much with all their unconditional love.

He was predeceased by his grandson Jeremy and by his brothers, Anthony Caprio, Jr. and Frank Caprio.

Funeral services are private at Phillip's request.
