

Phillip Sargent Snow

October 30, 2023

Phillip Sargent Snow, 76, of Scituate, passed away October 30th, 2023. He is survived by his wife Karen and son Alex.

Phil was a simple, down to earth man. He loved his family, friends, and life. He wasn't a big talker, instead had deep thoughts. Some of his joys in life were cruising country roads on his motorcycle, rides with no destination, metal detecting adventures, hikes, and cool antiques. It didn't take a lot to make him happy.

Phil loved animals and nature; the woods, the ocean, the birds, and the myriad of his pets over the years. He was content in his own backyard.

Phil was faced with several serious illnesses over the last five years. He tackled them head on, and fought like a warrior to the end. His strength lives on in us. Visitation will be held Sunday November 5th from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate.

“ Your Life was a Blessing
Your Memory is a Treasure
You're Loved Beyond Words
and Missed Beyond Measure

My condolences to all that were blessed to know him.

“ To Karen and Alex. I am so sorry for your loss. Phil was my son Dekota's Godfather. I would like to leave you all with a simple reminder for I love you all May you always have an Angel by your side. Watching out for you in all the things you do. Reminding you to keep believing in brighter days. Finding ways for your wishes and dreams to come true. Giving you hope that is as certain as the sun. Giving you the strength of serenity as your guide. May you always have love and comfort and courage. May you always have an Angel by your side. Someone there to catch you if you fall, Encouraging your dreams, Inspiring your happiness, Holding your hand and helping you through it all. In all of our days, our lives are always changing. Tears come along as well as smiles. Along the roads you travel, May the miles be a thousand times more lovely than lonely. May they give you gifts that never, ever end. Someone wonderful to love and a dear friend in whom you can confide. May you have rainbows after every storm. May you have hopes to keep you safe and warm. And may you always have an Angel by your side.
Friends Are Like Angels. Love Johanna
