

Priscilla Diveley

January 17, 2014

Priscilla Shorty Diveley passed away on January 17, 2014. She was a long-time resident of N. Scituate. She was predeceased by her husband of 63 years, Victor Diveley, July 1, 2007. Shorty was a proud graduate of the Rhode Island School of Nursing in Sept. 1943 and worked at Lying Inn Hospital for most of her nursing years. She was a member of the Lucy C. Ayers Foundation. She was also active in many activities in the town, such as the 4-H and the Misquamicut Riding and Driving Club. She is survived by one daughter, Marilyn Williams of Fife, WA; two grandchildren Rebecca Monnig of Archer, FL and Stephen Pope of Warwick, RI.; 9 great grandchildren and four great great grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, Shorty wishes to have contributions made to the Lucy C. Ayers Memorial Foundation, c/o Wealth Management, The Washington Trust Company, 23 Broad St., Westerly, RI 02891, which provides grants for those who wish to attend nursing school, or contributions to a local animal organization of your choosing. Priscilla requested to be cremated and buried next to her husband, at the Veterans Cemetery. No services are planned.
