

Ryan James Bishop

December 17, 2021

Ryan James Bishop, 42, entered eternal rest on December 17, 2021.

He was born in Providence, a son of Cheryl (Catone) Geremia and her husband Dean and Peter Bishop. Ryan was the proud father of Trevor James Bishop, loving brother of Scott and Haley Bishop. He is predeceased by his grandparents Elaine and Eugene Catone, Constance and R. James Bishop; 1st and adored great-grandson of Jenny and Joseph Andrade. Ryan also leaves his nieces and nephews whom he loved and delighted in.

Ryan was a voracious and passionate Scrabble player. He particularly enjoyed playing with the family, make that beating the pants off everyone! There were few things that would lure Ryan out of his room, but one sure thing was when his youngest niece Callie came to visit. He loved her company and playing like he was a child again, running and chasing each other. He was always sure to have some candy stashed away to surprise her with.

Ryan was self taught his favorite subject of history. He's spend hours watching the History Chanel and discussing events with his step-dad.

Ryan was a life long sports fan, hardly missing a Red Sox or Patriots game. It was not uncommon to hear him enthusiastically discussing game plays and player stats with his brother and nephew.

Among other pleasures in Ryan's life was anything that came out of his mom's kitchen. He'd prefer her cooking over take-out any day of the week.

Ryan was a deep thinker and would stand firm in his beliefs.

From an early age Ryan loved animals and nature. As a boy he's spend hours bent over at the beach collecting snails and shells. He is dearly missed by the family dogs Sage, Dazey and Willy whom he researched long and hard to discover her true bloodlines and breed.

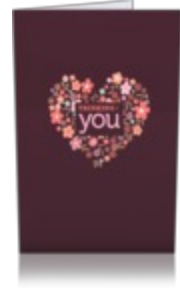

In honor of Ryan's life, we ask that the stigma surrounding mental health to end. If talking about it, exposing it, shouting it from the rooftops will help even one person find a way to talk about their pain, a difference can and must be made.

A Mass of Christian of Burial will be held on January 15, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. in St. Paul the Apostle Church, 116 Danielson Pike, Foster, RI.

Tribute Wall

“ A sympathy card was purchased for the family of Ryan James Bishop.

January 13, 2022 at 12:24 AM

“ Ry, you sure did give me a run for my money. As my first born , we grew up together. Always keeping me on my toes but when you'd say mom, I'm sorry, I knew you meant it. Next to my mother, no one loved me more. We not only looked a lot alike but we had the same stubborn personality. You were as protective of me as I was you. My heart exploded the moment you were born and the love we shared was a constant. You'll have 2 heavenly moms now who will love you, your Grandma and great grandma. Good hands because they taught me everything I know about being a mom and love. My beautiful boy ~ I Love You Mom, Forever In My Heart ❤️

Cheryl Geremia - January 11, 2022 at 10:41 PM

“ Ryan was always polite and respectful to me. He was also so obviously a kind and caring soul who considered others suffering and wanted to help.
I pray for internal peace for you Cheryl and for Dean and all of the family in knowing he is no longer struggling through each day. God rest his beautiful soul.

Kelly Estes - January 11, 2022 at 06:39 PM

EM

“ Ryan is at peace now and can observe from above without the stress of trying to navigate the nonsense. Ryan was always a pleasure and now he is our angel and in lots of good company up there. Say hi to Papa Joe for me...RIP Ryan

Ellen McKenna - January 11, 2022 at 05:48 PM