

Sheila B. Holbert

May 8, 2023

Sheila B. Holbert (Stoutenberg), formerly of Hancock, NY died peacefully on May 8, 2023 at Fatima Hospital in Providence, RI. She was 82 years old.

Sheila was born in Plainfield, NJ to the late Walter and Margaret (Reid) Stoutenberg. When she was a senior in high school she and her parents relocated to Hancock, NY. There she would meet Alphonse, her husband of 62 years. They went on to build a home in the village where they would raise a family and reside in for the next 57 years. She was a member of the Hancock Baptist Church for over fifty years before attending the Buckingham Baptist Church.

Sheila was a proud mother to her son Walter (Allyssa) Holbert of Cranston, RI and her daughter Sheila Laurie (Danielle Cummins) Holbert of Rockland, NY, and grandmother to Katrina, Victoria, Grace and Hannah.

Sheila always spoke fondly of her times at 'the lot' with family, times at the lake with Art and Margaret Ware, an Alaskan cruise and international travels with Dave and Betty Edwards, and numerous motor home adventures with Richard and Joan Dillon. She also had many memories and special friends from her more than thirty years working as a paraprofessional at Hancock Central School. In retirement Sheila and her husband also became 'regulars' at the Starlight Inn as well as daily coffee patrons at the Country Store.

Sheila is survived by her husband, children and grandchildren, as well as, many nieces, nephew, and cousins. She is predeceased by her parents, her sister in law Daughn Linkroum, and brother in laws Clyde (Mildred) Holbert and Russell (Elsie) Burtch.

A private graveside service will be held for her family and friends in Lake Como, PA in August 2023.

“ I stayed with aunt Shiela one time for a couple of weeks or more and had such a great time. She always treated me,so special and she and I had a certain bond. She was old fashioned and forward thinking at the same time.
