

Sidney R. Amylon

March 7, 2014

AMYLON, SIDNEY R. 91, passed away Friday March 7, 2014. He was the beloved husband of the late Mary Elisabeth (Alexander) Amylon. Born in Hillsgrove, RI, he was the son of the late Alfred Richmond Amylon and Helen (Irons) Amylon. He lived for many years in North Scituate before moving to Greenville in 2013. Mr. Amylon served in World War II in the Army Air Corps as a B-25 bomber pilot. He was awarded several medals including the Distinguished Flying Cross for service in Burma. A Brown University graduate, he worked much of his career at BIF in Providence. While his children were growing up he served as a member of the school committee in Scituate. He is survived by his children, Kenneth Amylon and wife Deborah of Providence, Michael Amylon of Modesto, California, Judith Bosley and husband Mac of Villanova, Pennsylvania, Robert Amylon of North Scituate, Jane Lazzara of Modesto, California and Jeffrey Amylon and wife Rebecca of Richmond and twelve grandchildren; Philip, Robin, Alex, Peter, and Mary Amylon, Elisabeth, Rachel and Alice Bosley, Meagan and Matthew Amylon, and Caterina and Victoria Lazzara. He was the brother of Phyllis Mayo of Akron, Ohio and the late Leroy Amylon of Corning, New York. A funeral service will be Wednesday March 12th at 10AM in the Winfield & Son's Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Rd., Scituate. Burial with Military honors will be in RI Veterans Cemetery, Exeter. Calling hours Tuesday 4 - 7 PM. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Cancer Society , 931 Jefferson Blvd., Suite 3004, Warwick, RI 02886. - See more at: <http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/pro> vidence/obituary.aspx?n=sidney-amylon&pid=170066819&fhid=23076#sthas

h.Lk2a7NzE.dpuf