“ God Bless Steve Darigan for gracing us commoners on Mother Earth with his regal glorious presence for his 59 years! My best memories of Sir Steve was when I used to work for the Providence Turnkey station in the 1990s in the Flats dispatch area; Steve was such an exceptional performer at everything he set out to conquer with his brother Mike! Just this dynamic duo tandem was so multi- talented, very witty and charming; a vital force to be reckoned with! My sincerest condolences go out to all his family, friends, and acquaintances whose lives Steve have touched over the past 30 years; May He rest in Peace With God Forever For His Brave Spirit Will Endure and Fly Like Eagle with All the Angels in Heaven Forever! Mas Tequila and Cheers to you All!

Rest in Peace Stephen. Stevie D. is how I'm going to remember you. We had our differences but I always love you. I have some really good memories of you way back in the day. Mom made you give my your Wishbone Ash album because I wanted it and I was being me (a jerk). You did give it to me though. I guess out of respect for Mom aka Ginny. If it wasn't for you and Terry I never would have gotten to see David Bowie. That was just Incredible! You we're one of the funniest people I ever met. I wish things like didn't happen. I'm Really Miss You. After all you're my Brother in Law and My Sister Terry's Soul Mate. You're no longer in pain and for that I am grateful. I have a lot of Great memories of you. I think of you often. Forever in my Heart. Always in my Thought's and Prayer's. You're Sadly Missed By Many. ❤️

I messed this up in places. I couldn't see what I was writing. I can't find anyway to edit it.
