

Trinity Elijah Ang Jun Huang

November 1, 2021

Trinity Elijah Ang Jun Huang, 22, passed away November 1, 2021.

Born in Phoenix, Arizona he was the cherished son of Justin Ang and Allison Kollmar; devoted brother of Phoenix Ang and Avalon Pressman; proud grandson of Lynn Bizer and Helen Ang; loving boyfriend of Summer Taylor. He also leaves many aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends.

Trinity loved life with a passion. In his short life he had sailed the Atlantic Ocean and painted masterpieces. He was also skilled with his hands and had built buildings and robots. When Trinity set his mind on something, he approached every project ferociously with tenacity until completion.

Jun Huang has a fascination with Chinese Medicine and was recently looking to go to school in Oregon to learn the practice.

While not busy working on his projects, he enjoyed hiking, camping and being connected to nature.

Trinity was a generous friend, a caring protector and loving brother to his sisters. Phoenix, who is almost his twin, confidant and inspiration, and little Avalon whom he cherished.

He was inseparable from the love of his life and best friend Summer Taylor. They shared some of his happier times as a couple.

Trinity was a dutiful son to his father and mother, who were so proud of him. He was the happiest and most beautiful son a parent could ever ask for. His other father figures included uncle Jason and beloved uncle Charles.

Trinity had family all over the world. From America, The United Kingdom, Australia and Malaysia, he missed them all dearly.

Trinity has left us today on his latest quest to reach the Buddhist Pure Land. His tenacity will bring him there and back to us again in our hearts.

Visitation will be held Monday, November 8th from 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. with a Buddhist Service at 10:00 a.m in the Winfield & Sons Funeral Home, 571 West Greenville Road, Scituate. Cremation will be private.

“ I met Trey and Phoenix at a skating rink in Malaysia when I was 10. We were only kids but he was sweet, always a joker, and he even helped me win tickets to Greyson Chance's concert! After he moved to the States, we eventually stopped contacting over the years. Today, I thought about him and decided to randomly google his full name—he told me once, and somehow I remembered it until today. I was heartbroken to come across this news and I wish I had known this earlier. He was so young. My deepest condolences to his family and loved ones.
