

Vincent Calderone, Jr.

April 1, 2024

Vincent "Vinnie" Calderone Jr., beloved son, husband, and friend, passed away peacefully in Chepachet, Rhode Island, on April 1st. He was surrounded by the love of his dear friends Dan and Pat, who tirelessly cared for him in the final months of his life. Vincent was 73 years old.

Vincent was born in North Providence, Rhode Island, on August 6, 1950. Then, in 1972, he moved to Florida with his parents, where he received a teaching degree from Florida Atlantic University. He decided to enter the swimming pool business and became part owner of Guardian Pools in Florida before eventually retiring. He moved back to Rhode Island in July 2023 after a short illness in Florida.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Vincent was known for his zest for life. He had a passion for cooking and was renowned for his culinary skills, always delighting friends and family with his delicious creations. He had a magnetic personality and was the life of every party, bringing joy and laughter wherever he went.

Vincent's warm heart and generous spirit touched the lives of all who knew him. He will be deeply missed by his friends, family, and all those who had the privilege of crossing paths with him.

Vincent is preceded in death by his loving parents, Vincent and Margaret, and survived by his former wife, Janea, and many cherished friends and cousins, especially cousins Paula and Jeff, who took many freshly made dishes to him over the last few months. They all will miss him very much.

In honoring Vincent's memory, let us celebrate his vibrant and joyful life, and may his legacy continue to inspire kindness, laughter, and love in the hearts of those he left behind. Rest in peace, Vinnie. We love you!
