

Walter Edward Davis, III

April 24, 2024

Walter Edward Davis, III, 59, passed away unexpectedly April 24, 2024.

Born in Providence, he was the son of Phyllis (Jalowy) Davis and the late Walter Edward Davis, Jr.

He is survived by his daughter Leanne Shalloo and her husband Evan, his granddaughter Kairi Mackenzie and his sister Lori Davis.

Walter was a Sensei and owned multiple Dojo's in Northern Rhode Island; Dragons Den in Smithfield and Scituate. He loved to be outdoors, whether it was fishing, hunting or being out on his motorcycle. Walter was a animal lover and was the proud owner of two dogs, Toka and Ash.

Above all else Walter was a hero to his daughter, a loving grandfather (aka "Poppy") to his granddaughter and was the best son and brother anyone could ask for. He leaves many friends who loved him deeply and will be missed by all who knew him.

A celebration of Walter's life will be held at a later date to be announced.

“ Sensei, where do I begin. My sincerest condolences to your family. You taught me so much about Karate, Compassion, Work Ethic, and how to make a difference. From the Karate Studio- Deliveries in the Deli Van- Pool Parties- Boat Parties, it was always an absolute blast and non-stop laughs. You helped push me to achieve a life goal of getting my Black Belt, something I will always cherish. I still owe you for fixing the lawn mower when we were doing wheelies on the driveway in Rollingwood Dr, and the side of the house!!!. You will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

Rest In Peace Sensei-

“ Sensei Walter E. Davis III was my longtime childhood karate instructor at Nick Cerio’s Kenpo in both Scituate and Smithfield at the dragon’s den. He was one of 4 men that believed in me when no other instructors would because I was disabled. I’ll remember a very valuable lesson he taught me from Day 1 Good stance hands up. Never fear getting knocked down it’s the one that gets up harder and stronger that makes a warrior. Heartfelt Condolences to his sister Lori and granddaughter Kairi, I’ve heard many wonderful stories of you both in passing to and from class. 2005 Jr. Shodan Derek Montecalvo.

“ Uncle Walt,
I will miss you man. I will cherish the memories of us fishing, training in the gym and watching UFC fight nights at dads. I will miss our conversations. I will tell Ellie stories of us fishing as she gets older and all the laughs we shared. You are an amazing person Uncle Walt, with a huge heart. You will be deeply missed. I love you man. Rest in peace.
