

Wayne Quinn

April 20, 2024

Wayne Quinn, 43, a gentle giant with a loving soul and a heart of gold, passed away on April 20, 2024. Known for his unwavering work ethic, Wayne's dedication was evident not only in his work, but also in the meticulous care he invested in his beloved BMW and Ninja Sport bike, which he maintained in mint condition.

His signature style included crisp white t-shirts layered under button-down shirts, paired with crease-free sneakers. He was always dressed impeccably to leave a lasting impression. Wayne was not just a man of style, but also of humor with a quick wit that brought laughter to those around him. His jokes and playful nature brightened the lives of many.

During moments of relaxation, Wayne could often be found with a spoon in hand, indulging in his favorite snack - a pint of Ben and Jerry's ice cream. His joy in simple pleasures reflected a man who appreciated life's little joys.

Wayne Quinn will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. He leaves behind a legacy of hard work, laughter, and a genuine love for life that will be cherished and remembered forever.

Wayne Quinn, grandson of the late Theresa Davis, son of Donna Larson and Wayne Quinn, and beloved brother to Eddy Larson, Dennis Larson, and Paula Mirabella and her husband, Robert Mirabella. He is survived by his children Jacob Quinn, Ava Quinn, and Maddon Quinn.

In addition to his immediate family, Wayne was the uncle to Vince Della-Fave, Diamond LaTorre, Faith Balletto, and Nico Larson. His love extended to Skyler LaTorre and Brooklynn LaTorre, whom he cherished as great-nieces. Wayne also leaves behind his longtime girlfriend, Andrea Massemينو and daughters Gisele Gaither and Tayla Massemينو who Wayne also loved and looked at as his own daughters who brought warmth and joy to his life.

Wayne's presence touched the lives of many, leaving a lasting impact on all those who were fortunate enough to know him. Though he may be physically gone, Wayne's Spirit and Legacy will forever live on in the hearts of his Family and friends. Rest in peace, Wayne Quinn. Your light will continue to shine in our hearts.

“ First I'm sending my deepest sympathy to the family ,this is a horrible tragedy .I'll never forget meeting Wayne when he was just a young boy on Heather St , Wayne always had patience with my youngest very rambunctious Son . Just playing games and keeping him busy for me once in a while . When we met Wayne he had a cool hair style for a young kid ,never a hair out of place ,cool sneakers and dressed to impress ... and he was adorable ! That is how I choose to remember Wayne ,as he was then ,it's easier on the heart & mind then to think of him any other way .
Prayers to all 🙏

“ I know a lot of people were blessed to have known you, but to have been loved unconditionally by you for the last 10 years have been some of the greatest days of my life and I will treasure you and the love that we shared, forever. I knew your heart and when I tell you no one will ever compare to you, I mean that with full conviction. You showed me what it is like to be truly loved, valued, and respected and I find comfort knowing that we all have the ultimate protection in this cold world because we have you looking over us and protecting us. I appreciate you stepping in and being the most amazing father to Giselle. She was raised seeing the greatest example of LOVE and the way a woman should be treated and treasured by a man and for that I will forever be grateful to you. Thank you for everything, everyday. I will never make sense of this but I can promise I will love you until the day I can finally be wrapped up tight in those arms again. Rest easy my love.

Love you both. He never once judged me and treated me like the older brother I never had but needed. 💙

“ Sweet Wayne, You had a light in you that not many have. A gentle giant who had the warmest hugs. Your contagious laugh, our double date nights, roller skating fun and bowling will always be memories that I will forever cherish. I can't begin to say how much you will be missed by the kids and I. Rest in peace my dear friend. You will be greatly missed and I will forever be there for Andrea, Giselle and Tayla. Love you, Wayne.
