

Wendy Sue Andrews

August 11, 2022

Wendy Sue (Poliquin) Andrews, 57, passed away peacefully August 11, 2022 with her loving husband by her side.

Born in Missoula, Montana, she was a cherished daughter of Wilfred and Winifred (Mowry) Poliquin; beloved wife of Walter Andrews; step-mother of William E. Andrews; step-grandmother of Aubrey Andrews (her mother Lynn-Sainz Andrews); sister of Wanda J. Rawlinson (Stephen) and Wayne A. Poliquin (Mary); aunt of Erich R. Houseman (Courtney), Shannon R. Rawlinson, Stephen J. Rawlinson Jr., Jessica Poliquin, Connor Poliquin and Kyle Poliquin. She also leaves great-nieces and one great-nephew.

Wendy graduated from Princess Margaret Senior Secondary School in British Columbia. She worked for the Town of Burrillville and was the President of Jesse Smith Library. She also was a director with Pampered Chef and enjoyed the many vendor fairs, home parties and the friendships made throughout the years.

When not working, Wendy enjoyed their family camp in Maine, antique shopping, horseback riding and finding sea glass at the beach. She was a devoted pet owner and loved her dogs who predeceased her Wyley, Whitey, Blackie and Shadow.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.

So many memories with Walt & Wendy. Wendy was a true sport. We had so much fun together whenever they came to Maine. Many meals and social hours were shared upta camp. Heaven has just gained a beautiful angel....
