Happy birthday son, you would be turning 30 on April 14th. I think about you every day. Your presence is alive here in the Village. It's not the same without you busting into my room and hanging on the canopy wearing your tie dye shirt. It made me mad then but now I miss it.

“ Completely heartbroken to hear. We was always a great person to work with. He was a hard worker and always made everyone smile and laugh. I can't believe he's gone. My deepest condolences to his brother Nate and the rest of his family.

“ Billy was my son's friend for over 20years, he had been to my home many times. He was at our house for Thanksgiving dinner. He was so polite and appreciative, as were all the guys. It was a dinner that I'll never forget. He, as well as the others have a standing invitation for Thanksgiving dinner. Next year we will have a place setting for Billy. We will never forget him. Love, Mrs.Clark 🙏🌹
